If the people were as ready to give the poor devil of an Editor the dollar for his paper as they are to condemn him if he should fail to publish free just even one birth, one death, one obituary or card of thank, all the Weddings, the tobacco tidings, what the Society of Equity, Farmers' Union, the Stemming District Association, lodges, churches and preachers are doing, saying nothing about taking care of all the graveyard notices and the space expected by Uncle Sam for recuperating his army, poor fellows, together with numberless other things, there would be cheer and comfort around his fire on Christmas morning as well as your own. Perhaps his little wife would look as happy and sweet as your own in her neat modest dress and the faces of the sweet children. God bless them, would be wreathed in happy smile, and could repeat for you,

"Away in the manger
No crib for his bed,
The little Lord Jesus
Lay down His sweet head,
A star in the sky
Looked down where he lay
The little Lord Jesus
Asleep in the hay."

And the poor father could go to church in a decent suit of clothes without having to buy one leg of his trousers at a time, coming back to his happy home where the queen of all the earth to him, had in waiting for him and his happy little flock, just such a meal as can be enjoyed but once a year.

When a man came in the other day with an article of material benefit to the writer and those concerned, asking if we charged any thing for it we, in our desperation said no, of course not. Everything free from Genesis to Revelations and Jerusalem to Maine save county commissioner notices and Fiscal Court statements. So realizing that it takes a whole lot of money to run a good county newspaper walk in the first time you go to town and hand in a dollar and quit borrowing your neighbor's paper and even then criticizing it if it does not suit you.

Does advertising pay? For answer, we will say that everywhere, the best business men advertise. And surely it pays or they would not do it.

One of the most thrifty firms in the State is the Sturgis Dry Goods Company at Sturgis, Ky., owned by C. T. Wallace and Tom Holt, two men who, having started poor, owe their success to liberal advertising. In nearly every issue of their town paper, the News Democrat, they have from one to two pages, and every time you go in their store you will find it full of anxious buyers. They are now giving away a fine piano and the last issue of the paper devoted one page alone to the picture of the box in which this fine instrument was shipped.

Go there any day in the week and you will find men, women and whole families, from Crittenden, Webster and all parts of Union county taking advantage of the good bargains advertised. Certainly this is proof enough that advertising pays. Then too, to make it pay the better they keep every article they advertise and sell it at the price advertised—in every instance "making good what they say."

Ask them if advertising pays. I have charged them $30.00 for a page ad two weeks and $20.00 for bills of a ten days sale and have seen them take over the counter in a single day, more than one thousand dollars, three per cent of one day's sales paying for the advertising.

It is twenty miles from Marion to Sturgis and twenty miles from Sturgis to Marion, and it is but seven days from Christmas to New year while from New Year to Christmas there are 358 days. See, Mrs. Mary G. Greanlea, of Los Angeles, Cal., sends answer to the Hardin & Miller piano puzzle recently printed in the Record-Press. These pianos are sold here by Yates Bros. Surely this shows that advertising pays.

The Court of Appeals has decided that James H. Parrish must serve five years in the penitentiary for wrecking the Owensboro Savings Bank and Trust Company.

Read well, the various ads in the Record-Press this week and next and profit by it. The man who advertises deserves your patronage.

President Taft will shortly visit Louisville.

A little child was drowned in a horse trough the other day while the father was attending the funeral of its mother.

The Club House for 1910.

I am still in the hotel business in Marion for the New Year, at the place where I am now located. I have a host of customers I am very proud of—the reliable farmers of Crittenden, Livingston, Caldwell, Lion, Webster and Union counties, also a nice mineral and commercial patronage.

Call and see me when in Marion. I am the same congenial hostess I have been for the past 11 years. My beds are not surpassed, and my table is furnished with the best the market affords. I certainly appreciate your liberal patronage and will welcome you at any time. Thanking you for future custom, I am

Your friend,

MEETING OF THE MUSIC CLUB

With Miss Nelle Sutherland on Saturday Afternoon, Dec. 11.
A Much Enjoyed Event.

Miss Nelle Sutherland charmingly entertained the Music Club Saturday afternoon, December, 11th, at her home on Salem street.

The life of the famous musician and composer, Engleman, was the subject for discussion, and a number of selections from that gifted man were discussed.

The program was as follows:
Enchantment..... Selected Orchestra:—Mesdames S. M. Jenkins, Jas. L. Travis and W. C. Tucker.

Heart Bowed Down..... Engleman Vocal Solo: Mrs. Fannie Walker, Apple Blossoms..... Engleman Instrumental Solo: Miss Allie May Yates.

Behind the Scenes..... Engleman Flute Solo: Miss Mira Dixon.

Festal Array..... Engleman Mrs. S. M. Jenkins and Miss Ina Price.

Reading, Benorie a Scotch Ballad—Miss Willett.

As In Days of Old..... Selected Vocal Duet:—Mrs. Jas. L. Travis and Miss Bernice Driskill.

Just For The Fun Of It..... Selected Instrumental Duet:—Mesdames S. M. Jenkins and W. V. Haynes.

Quarter from Rigoletto..... Engleman

Instrumental Solo:—Miss Ina Price
The program was very charmingly rendered, and each selection was much appreciated by the audience. Besides the members of the Club, the following visitors were present: Misses Willett, Dixon, Driskill, and Mrs. J. H. Orme. Miss Willett and Bernice Driskill were enrolled as members of the Club.

Delightful refreshments of cream and cake were served.

Miss Sutherland proved herself a very charming hostess, and the afternoon was very much enjoyed by all those present.

Birthday Celebration.

On last Sunday, the 12th, the seventy-third anniversary of Mr. G. G. Hammond's birthday was celebrated in a way and manner long to be remembered by all present. The affair was planned by his good wife who, aided by the children in St. Louis, Evansville and Marion, gave this great old man the surprise of his life, as he knew nothing of what was to take place until the train brought the visitors and they were deposited despite the inclemency of the weather, in two bus loads at the home of dear old father and mother. All that Mr. Hammond did know, was that he had, for several weeks been fattening as fine a 'possum as was ever caught out of Crittenden woods, that he expected his wife to prepare for what turned out to be a great feast day. All the boys and their wives, came loaded with every thing nice that man or woman's mind could conceive of, oysters, asparagus, celery, lettuce, a variety of grapes, nuts, candies etc., aside from a nice suit of clothes and overcoat for father and nice dress for mother. It was a happy occasion and a happy lot of children and grand children that made it.

The children were:
Mrs. C. O. Shanklin, of East St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson and children, Mrs. James Loftus and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hammond and Luke Hammond, all of Evansville and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young and Harry Hammond, of Marion. The only visitors were Miss Gertrude Gantner, of Evansville, and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Calmes.

The long table groaned under a load of every good thing to eat known to a good housewife.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond can well feel proud of such children, every one of them, men and women were handsome and intelligent. Mrs. C. O. Shanklin is conducting a prosperous business in East St. Louis, while each of the children in Evansville are either in business or holding prominent positions.

Surely it is consoling to this grand old couple to know, that in their old age, they are so loved by their children.

May they live to see many more such birthdays.

WOOL GROWERS OF EACH COUNTY

their respective counties at 1 o'clock p. m. Saturday, December 18th 1909 and elect a County Board of Control, consisting of five growers. These should be from each magisterial district, as far as possible. One of these should at the same time be elected as a delegate to represent his county at the State meeting which is hereby called to meet at the State Fair offices, room 320 Paul Jones Building, Louisville, Ky., Tuesday, December, 21, at 1 o'clock p. m., at which time and place a permanent organization will be formed, and all steps taken necessary to be ready for active pooling January, 1, next. It is to the interest of every grower in the State to aid in this movement and all are cordially invited to become members thereof. See that your neighbors attends the county meetings along with you, and request your county paper to publish the call.

Daly--Marvel.

At 4 o'clock p. m., at the residence of Hiram Ford, Mr. B. G. Marvel and Miss Kate Daly were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. U. G. Hughes officiating.

Mr. Marvel is an enterprising farmer of Crooked Creek.

Miss Daly is from Hampton, Livingston county, and has the appearance of being a fine young lady possessing all the qualities that go to make a noble woman.

May their lives be long and full of happiness. U. G. H.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Paris is Full of Them and Nearly All Use Parisian Sage.

In the beauty show at the metropolis two years ago Gold Medals were awarded to five different women.

To the most beautiful woman between 20 and 25; between 25 and 30; between 30 and 35; between 35 and 40 and between 40 and 45.

A society reporter who interviewed all five women in the interest of his papers, reported that all of them had beautiful hair, and that each of the five enthusiastically attributed her luxuriant hair to Parisian Sage.

Haynes & Taylor sell Parisian Sage for 50 cents a large bottle. They guarantee it to cure dandruff in two weeks; to stop falling hair and itching of the scalp. It makes any woman's hair beautiful, soft and luxuriant.
